Press Release Public Forum For Health Officer Final Interviews

The application period for the Gallatin City-County Health Officer position was open for applications through May 2 and the Board of Health received 13 applicants for the position. Three finalists have completed formal interviews. Their final interviews will be done in a public forum to provide transparency in the process and allow the public to weigh in on the selection.

This public forum will be held virtually using Zoom. Register as an attendee by clicking this link <https://bit.ly/3ocuTII>; enter the required information, and click submit. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar. You can also join by phone by calling +1-253-215-8782 and entering the Webinar ID: 912 8393 4064 and Passcode: 258167

Please be aware that verbal public comments are not permitted during the interview. We will be gathering and compiling public comments twice during the interview process.

1. If there is a question you would like to be asked during the interview, email your question to BOHPublicComment@gallatin.mt.gov. Questions will be collected until Tuesday, May 18 at 4 p.m. These questions will be distributed to the Board of Health Chair before the interviews.
2. The interviews will be recorded and posted online for public viewing. Public comments regarding the interviews will be collected via email as well. Please submit your public comment regarding the interview to BOHPublicComment@gallatin.mt.gov. Comments will be collected until Wednesday, May 26 at 4 p.m.
